

Printer-friendly PDF

Human resources

In pursuit of the business, process efficiency, improved information distribution, involvement and enhancement strengthen the corporate structures to involve and assist individuals in development and change; encourage dialogue between employees and their clients, investors, the region and institutions;

- develop training and knowledge management in support of the development of corporate and individuals;
- computerise the communication processes, access to services, to documents and to procedures, simplify

Efforts were concentrated on achieving innovative solutions to manage individuals and information through ongoing

